2012-13 Program Changes Brief

Payroll Deduction
Currently: Payroll deductions are calculated for a 9 month pay period effective with hours worked in September through May of the parking year. Deductions are taken from the scheduled “A” check.
Change: Equal deductions will be taken from all “A” and “B” payroll checks. The number of deductions would be 9, 12 or 24, based on the payroll status of the individual.
Effective: September 1, 2012

Bicycle Locker Deposit
Currently: Reserved bicycle lockers are available for rent on a semester or annual basis. Applicants who are offered a bicycle locker must pay the rental fee and a key deposit. Key deposits are refunded when a participant leaves the program and returns the key to UW Transportation Services.
Change: Applicants who are offered a bicycle locker must pay the rental fee and agree to an additional Key Replacement fee should they lose the assigned locker key.
Effective: September 1, 2012

Flex Evening Rates
Currently: Flex permits allow faculty and staff who need occasional parking on campus to pay for parking only when they need it. Flex permit holders are charged a minimum trip charge and an hourly day rate until 4:30 p.m., not to exceed the daily maximum.
Change: Flex permit holders would be charged a minimum trip charge, hourly daily rate and hourly evening rate to park in lots controlled during the day and evening, not to exceed the daily maximum. For lots controlled on Saturdays, evening rates would apply. For more detailed information please view the Flex page of the Transportation Services website.
Effective: September 1, 2012

Citation Appeal Process
Currently: A UW-Madison parking citation may be appealed by a customer who believes they have received the citation in error or believes there were special circumstances that should be considered. If after the administrative review the citation is upheld, the customer may appeal to the Dane County Municipal Traffic Court.
Change: If an appealed citation is upheld, the new two level review process would allow customers a second opportunity to present additional information for consideration before appealing to the Dane County Municipal Traffic Court.
Effective: September 1, 2012

Citation Appeal Bond
Currently: Citation appeals must be submitted online and require a bond payment in the amount of the citation. If the citation is dismissed, the bond amount would be returned. If the citation is upheld, the bond amount would be forfeited as payment of the citation.
Change: When appealing a citation, customers with a valid NetID are no longer required to submit a cash bond.
Effective: September 1, 2012
